Not every kind of project requiring a permit is listed here. Please call the Inspections Office if you don't see your particular project listed and want to know if you need to apply for a permit.

Accessory Structures

C.O./CSI - no change of occupancy

C.O./CSI - with change of occupancy

C.O./CSI (minimum housing standards and lead test) - for rental property if the water was off for six months or more.

CSI (Lead test) - single family residential owner occupied if water was off for six months or more

Electrical installation and repair

Expansion of a building

Fences - if fence will be along a public right of way

Fire suppression (sprinkler) plans

Foundation repair

Gas Line repairs and installation

HVAC Unit Replacement

New Building

New shell building

Other minor misc. repairs or improvements

Other 'one-time inspection' permits, such as "T" Pole, HVAC units, yard lines, etc.

Plumbing installation and repair

Pool - above ground

Pool - in ground

Renovation

Replace HVAC system (units, ducts, plenum, etc)

Replace yard lines

Service line repairs

Signs

Work in ROW: new driveways, driveway repair, new sidewalks, sidewalk repair

Yard irrigation system